

Chapter 26 World history section 1

I. Paths to War

A. The German Path to War

1. Adolf Hitler- Germany needed more land and would conquer the _____ and the Slavic people would become the _____.

B. Hitler Violates Treaty

1. Hitler created an _____ and began a military _____ which violated the Treaty _____.
2. His actions were not stopped because _____, _____, and _____ were busy with the Great Depression.
3. Hitler did not think they would use force to stop him so he invaded demilitarized _____ - violating the treaty.
4. This began _____ - satisfying reasonable demands of dissatisfied powers to maintain peace.

C. New Alliances

1. _____ joined forces with Hitler and Germany and Italy became _____ Axis.

D. Union with Austria

1. Hitler next wanted Anschluss- union with _____.
2. Hitler forcefully annexed _____ to Germany.

E. Demands and Appeasement

1. Hitler next demanded _____ - of Czechoslovakia.
2. At the _____ conference Hitler's demands were met, Czechs abandoned by the allies, all for peace.

F. Great Britain and France React

1. Hitler then demanded the Polish port of _____.
2. Britain offered to help _____ and Britain and France turned to _____ to become an ally to stop the Nazis.

G. Hitler and the Soviets

1. Hitler feared fighting a war on _____ fronts so he also went to _____.
2. A _____ pact was signed in return for Soviet control of eastern _____.
3. Hitler never intended on keeping _____.

H. Germany Invades Poland

1. Hitler announced his non-aggression pact, invaded _____, and _____ days later Britain and France declared war on _____.

I. The Japanese Path to War

1. Japan seized _____ from China, which sparked the military expanding and Emperor _____ not being able to control the army.

J. War with China

1. _____ - leader of China tried to avoid conflict with Japan but the Japanese continued to push into _____ and massacred 100,000 citizens at the _____.

K. The New Asian Order

1. Japan wanted China to join a _____ - East Asia led by Japan.
2. Japan had to look to South Asia for _____ because the Germans signed a _____ pact with the Soviets, so Japan would not be able to attack the _____.

L. Japan Launches Attack

1. If Japan went Southward it would upset _____ colonial powers.
2. US would apply economic _____ - restrictions to enforce international law.
3. If US sanctioned Japan, they would not have the _____ needed to expand, so Japan launched a surprise attack on _____ and European colonies.